Dear Counsel:

I have no objection to carrying the matter to 2/21/20. I did receive an email from Ms. Pelaez indicating that there would be victims present.

I would ask that the State reach out to the victims to advise that the matter is going to be carried to that date so that they do not come to court tomorrow expecting a resolution. Mr. Testa may also advise his client of the new date so he does not travel from Pittsburgh. Hopefully he did not leave yet.

I also received a media request form from both the Vineland Daily Journal and the SJ times. Matt Gray and Joe Smith. Perhaps someone might reach out to them so they know it is being carried as well.

Very truly yours,

Robert Malestein, JSC

Dear Judge Malestein:

Request is respectfully made to continue the sentencing of Jeffrey Profitt for a short period of time to 2/21/20, if convenient to the Court and counsel. The basis is that the State received by mail during the noon hour this date Defendant's sentencing memo 2/10/20. I am requesting an opportunity to respond. I have discussed with Mr. Testa who does not object. Our office will advise Mr. Testa if granted.

Dear Counsel:

I have no objection to carrying the matter to 2/21/20. I did receive an email from Ms. Pelaez indicating that there would be victims present.

I would ask that the State reach out to the victims to advise that the matter is going to be carried to that date so that they do not come to court tomorrow expecting a resolution. Mr. Testa may also advise his client of the new date so he does not travel from Pittsburgh. Hopefully he did not leave yet.

I also received a media request form from both the Vineland Daily Journal and the SJ times. Matt Gray and Joe Smith. Perhaps someone might reach out to them so they know it is being carried as well.

Very truly yours,

Robert Malestein, JSC

Dear Judge Malestein:

Request is respectfully made to continue the sentencing of Jeffrey Profitt for a short period of time to 2/21/20, if convenient to the Court and counsel. The basis is that the State received by mail during the noon hour this date Defendant's sentencing memo 2/10/20. I am requesting an opportunity to respond. I have discussed with Mr. Testa who does not object. Our office will advise Mr. Testa if granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Harold B. Shapiro
