Re: Records request

Dear Mr. Karan:

Please accept this letter in response to your records request dated April 17, 2020.

You have requested documentation in the form of: "Any and all emails sent or received by Cumberland County Prosecutors Office employees pertaining to Jeffrey Profitt between January 1, 2021, and April 15, 2021."

Please find all responsive records attached to this response as Responsive Records A. Please note, that the search term "Jeffrey Profitt" was utilized in order to conduct an electronic search of the email records in the possession of this office for all emails dating between January 1, 2021 to April 15, 2021, but no research was done into the content of emails to determine whether they pertain to any subject matter. Also please note that with regard to the single email responsive to your request, this email was not responded to by this Office and relates to no further records of communication.

One redaction has been made to these records, in the form of the telephone number of a citizen. OPRA custodians have an obligation to protect the reasonable privacy interests of citizens. See Executive Order 21 (McGreevey) (exempting from disclosure home addresses and telephone numbers of individual citizens); Executive Order 69 (Whitman); N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 ("a public agency has a responsibility and an obligation to safeguard from public access a citizen's personal information with which it has been entrusted when disclosure thereof would violate the citizen's reasonable expectation of privacy"); North Jersey Media Group, Inc. v. Bergen County Prosecutor's Office, 405 N.J. Super. 386 (App. Div. 2009); Bernstein v. Borough of Allendale, GRC Complaint No. 2004-195 (July 2005); Faulkner v. Rutgers University, GRC Complaint No. 2007-149 (May 2008).

The Cumberland County Prosecutor's Office reserves the right to raise any other ground for denial not raised in this response. The failure of the Cumberland County Prosecutor's Office to assert an exception or privilege does not act as a waiver of any ground for denial. If your request for access to a government record has been denied or unfilled within the seven (7) business days required by law, you have a right to challenge the decision by the Cumberland County Prosecutor's Office to deny access. At your option, you may institute a proceeding in the Superior Court of New Jersey. All questions regarding complaints filed in Superior Court should be directed to the Court Clerk.

Sincerely,

Stephen C. Sayer [114352015]

Assistant Prosecutor
